The order confirmation or the signed quotation together with the general terms and conditions of sale constitute the contract binding New Spirit to the customer whose identity is indicated on the quotation and/or the order confirmation. This contract will come into force on the last date on which all these documents are signed by the customer and by New Spirit. New Spirit will have no obligation towards the customer prior to this date.

However, the customer remains bound by the obligations entered into under the present contract, particularly with regard to payment terms (article 6) and cancellation conditions (article 7). In the event of late payment, and after formal notice by registered letter, the invoice amount will be increased by a flat-rate penalty equal to 10% of the unpaid amount, inclusive of tax.

Article 10.

Image rights :

During events organized by New Spirit, at the Moulin d'Altwies or at any other location, the agency reserves the right to take photos and videos for internal and external communication purposes. Article 11.

Damage/liability :

For all events held outside the Moulin d'Altwies, the customer must ensure that the electrical installations, the premises and the interior and exterior spaces comply with the regulations in force or have obtained the legal authorizations for use on the date of the event.

Any damage to New Spirit's equipment resulting from the customer's failure to comply with these regulations and authorizations will be charged to the customer.

When booking the service, the customer must inform New Spirit of the various technical constraints linked to the venue (vehicle access, water point, stairs, etc.) so that all these elements can be taken into account when drawing up the acceptance form.

When the customer contractually commits to making personnel available during the event to set up, supervise and dismantle New Spirit's equipment, the customer must ensure that these contractual commitments are fulfilled. Should this not be the case, New Spirit reserves the right to increase the cost of its services. When renting equipment alone, the customer will be given recommendations for the use of the equipment and must sign a document attesting to his or her knowledge of these documents, also committing him or her to respecting the regulations in force concerning the use of this equipment, thus releasing New Spirit from all liability.

In the event of an incident for which New Spirit is responsible and which disrupts the technical running of the event, the customer agrees that, whatever the grounds for its claim, New Spirit's liability, if any, in respect of the performance of its obligations under this contract shall be limited to an amount not exceeding the total sum actually paid by the customer for the service provided. Repair and replacement costs for furniture, materials, vehicles or other objects damaged during an event by the customer will be invoiced to the customer by New Spirit. The cost of repairs resulting from damage caused by the customer in his capacity as organizer or by persons participating in his event to equipment installed by New Spirit, will be charged to the customer. All customers using New Spirit equipment must be covered by their own personal insurance. New Spirit accepts no responsibility and will not be held liable in the event of accident or damage to equipment. The customer undertakes to pay the cost of repairing and/or buying back any equipment damaged during the event (for example, 115€HT for a chair cover).

Article 12.

Insurance:

New Spirit declares that it is insured for professional civil liability with a reputable and solvent company for all material and immaterial damage resulting from the performance of the service by its personnel.

Article 13.

Applicable duties :

This contract is governed by Luxembourg law. In the event of any dispute concerning its interpretation or performance, the Luxembourg courts shall have sole jurisdiction. This jurisdiction also applies to summary proceedings.

Article 14.

Modification of terms and conditions :

New Spirit reserves the right to modify the articles of the general sales conditions at any time. The new articles will apply to any new proposal or contract amendment issued after their introduction.
